

Crystal Chakra:

Flower of Saqqara oil lifts our vibration to the 5th dimension, it allows us to resonate with the crystalline world. Everything is in perfect order.

We are able to ascend while still living and being in the 3rd dimensional reality.

Our soul is singing as we advance along our Divine Pathway as set out by our Creator when we were created.

We are communicating at all times with our etheric body and all beings in the brilliant white light of the Divine.

NAMASTE.
